'JACK' WELLER IS IN THE PRISON JUTE MILL

Wrecker Of The Savings Bank Has Started Serving Sentence

It can be stated positively J. E. Weller had no money at the time he surrendered. From Fort Bragg the report comes Mr. Weller went to a man who is suspected of being engaged in bootlegging and borrowed the pocket change—$50—he had when he came to Ukiah.

All of the time Mr. Weller seemingly had been living up to what he could get and, just before the crash came, he took his salary about $500 and turned it over to Mrs. Weller.

While in jail here Mr. Weller asked no favors, simply resigning himself to the situation without complaint.

The prisoner undoubtedly believes he will get out of the penitentiary before many years, certain events indicating he has hopes along that line.

Trying Situation

The position of Judge H. L. Preston in sentencing Mr. Weller was a hard one, as the prisoner and the court had been friends for a great many years and when sentence was about to be passed and a plea was made to have the sentence run concurrently, instead of consecutively, Judge Preston was compelled to deny the request, although he would on account of old friendship, have liked to have done so, but could not because of the demand justice be meted out to the offender.

Bond Not Too High

A few of the close friends of Mr. Weller were inclined to criticize Judge J. C. Hurley because he held the wrecker of the bank under such heavy bond—$50,000, asserting this sum was more than the bond asked of the San Francisco gangsters. Judge Hurley, however, refused to listen to a reduction.

All Facts Obtained

Practically all of the employes were here as witnesses before the grand jury and each was given a lengthy examination, in which every rumor was traced and satisfactorily unravelled. The probe resulted in returning one indictment. J. E. Weller, defaulting cashier, was indicted on six counts, and later pleaded guilty before Judge H. L. Preston. He waived his time for sentence and was given a term of from six to 60 years in the state prison, immediately following his plea of guilty.

In Jute Mill

J. E. Weller, President of the First National Bank at Fort Bragg and of the First Bank of Savings of that city, was received Thursday at San Quentin Prison to begin serving his long sentence for embezzlement.

Mr. Weller was given the prison number of 36,411 and assigned to a job in the jute mill.

Stole Insurance Premiums

That Cashier J. E. Weller was an old hand at swindling is evidenced by this new alleged transgression which, according to The Mendocino Beacon, he is guilty of:

It would seem that all sources of revenue that Jack Weller enjoyed have not yet been brought to light, and it is probable that others will crop up from time to time. He made a little pin money off fire insurance. He had carried an agency for some years, but of late years he apparently was the "Company." He did a large business insuring many of the business places and homes here. After he was arrested and taken to Ukiah, a large number of property owners woke up to the fact that they were not insured at all. Weller had regularly taken their money for premiums, but had insisted on keeping their insurance policies where they were safe (?) in the bank's vault.

Stole From Lodge

The Red Men's lodge of Fort Bragg, of which he was the treasurer, is said to be loser by him to the extent of some $6000.

Must Pay Second Time

A new complication arising out of the wrecking of the First Bank of Savings by J. E. Weller is reflected in the following situation which The Advocate thusly comments on:

Many of the property owners in the Fourth District who entrusted the payment of their taxes to J. E. Weller will have to pay up again according to Lee Cunningham, County Tax Collector.

Payment on the check with which Mr. Weller made settlement for the taxes has been refused. This involves a total sum of between $2,000 and $3,000.

Concerning the transaction Mr. Cunningham says in part:

"It therefore becomes necessary and imperative under the law that I serve this notice upon you that the tax receipt which was delivered by Mr. Weller is null and void and thereby cancelled and that the taxes if not paid forthwith will be delinquent. I will keep my books open until the last possible moment and if you will pay same before the 15th of May, it will save you the penalty of delinquency."

Of the banking situation at Fort Bragg The Advocate says:

A plan was formulated for the reviving of the First Bank of Savings and the First National Bank, at meetings of the stockholders and directors of each institution held Saturday afternoon.

The successful working out of this plan will mean a big saving of time and money, but the hearty co-operation of all concerned, including the depositors, is very essential.

What Is Aimed At

C. R. Johnson is at the head of a committee to secure additional capital and perfect a new organization, if necessary, and it can be assured that he is doing all in his power to bring about the best possible results.

The plan adopted at the meeting requires a give and take spirit from all. According to law the Directors and Stockholders of the Savings Bank are liable for their individual proportional share of the deposits. A preliminary survey makes it evident, however, that many of the stockholders cannot put up their full share, which will result in a loss to the depositors. For example, if each share of stock is assessed $300, a person holding five shares will be obliged to produce $1,500 but if he has only $200 the depositors must stand the loss of $1,300. One stockholder is not liable for another stockholders shortage.

The Actual Condition

The shortage in the First Bank of Savings is given out at $173,000, which is practically the same as mentioned last week. Contrary to street talk there is no large shortage in the National Bank from embezzlement but there are bad and poor loans which exceed $100,000 some of which will be collected. The manner in which the money was taken from the Savings Bank, however, has entangled the banks in such a manner that if all details were worked out, item for item, it would take long and expensive litigation. The plan of compromising the differences, now being advocated, is a far more practical and less expensive way.

Committees to represent the Directors and Stockholders of each bank have been appointed with power to act for the respective bodies. Their first duty will be to untangle the affairs of both banks and ascertain the exact loss of each bank. They will next make a study of the liabilities of the Directors and Stockholders and ascertain the maximum amount that can be raised from them.

As the sum which can be raised will not offset the loss, the depositors will be expected to waive a per cent of their claims and settle the matter up immediately.

Methods Talked Over

Meetings of the depositors of each bank have been called for next Sunday when committees with power to act will be selected from the body.

Jonathan Dodge, State Superintendent of Banks, presided at Saturday's meetings, and expressed much faith in the plan. He and other banking officials who were present agreed that a great saving in time and money will be made if the project is successfully put through.

If the Savings Bank is forced into the hands of a receiver and wiped out, a large percentage of the assets will necessarily be used up in legal expenses, all of which will have to be deducted from the deposits.

C. R. Johnson is at the head of a committee which will meet with the other committees and act as a go between. After a settlement has been perfected, Mr. Johnson's committee will endeavor to interest new capital in the banks and perhaps unite them or make them over into a new institution entirely.

Must Be Separated

Mr. Dodge, head banking official, stated he did not believe the two banks would be allowed to continue business under one roof again, as such an arrangement would facilitate a duplica-

MET WRONG MAN

Harry Hays, a sure-thing wrestler with Howe's circus when in Ukiah last week ran up against a tartar when he offered $1.00 a minute to any man who would wrestle with him and keep from being thrown. Paul Poulos member of the Olympic Club of San Francisco, and who holds title of light heavyweight champion wrestler of the Pacific Coast, happened to be present and accepted the challenge. Mr. Paulos was not in shape but had no trouble, after getting a toe hold on his antagonist, in handling him. He could have thrown Hays any time, but waited to give the audience entertainment and, after eight minutes, disposed of the circus man. A big demonstration followed.

Woman Found By Roadside-Was Ill

When Mr. and Mrs. Bunt Cox and a party of friends were enjoying an automobile ride south of town Saturday evening they came upon the unconscious form of a woman lying alongside the highway. They brought the woman into town where medical aid disclosed a weak condition of the heart. The woman proved to be a Mrs. Wanda Reed, of Hollister, daughter of Carl Angle, of Santa Rosa who formerly resided in Ukiah. Mrs. Reed is in Ukiah visiting her grandmother Mrs. Drew and it is said her prostration on Saturday evening was brought on by medicine taken to relieve illness.

VISITED PARENTS

Mrs. Ida Briggs and the Misses Mayme, Alice and Ina Williams, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Williams, who live on the state highway near Calpella returned to their homes in San Francisco after having enjoyed an over-Sunday visit at the home of their parents.

F. C. Drew Has Quit At Last

Two years of legal skirmishing ended this week when F. C. Drew formally surrendered and started serving a five-day sentence for contempt of court imposed by former Judge White, the supreme court of the United States last week having refused to assume jurisdicition over the case which went to the tribunal on appeal for writ of habeas corpus, under which he sought to vacate the judgment against him in the superior court of Mendocino county.

Story of The Case

Mr. Drew appealed from the Mendocino court and lost in both the California district court of appeals and the California Supreme court. Governor Stephens refused a pardon. The case was transferred to San Francisco and appealed for a writ of habeas corpus which was dismissed by Judge Cabaness.

Transcript of the mandates with the U. S. Supreme Court opinion was returned to Judge Cabaness last week.

Mr. Drew's sentence was imposed August 27, 1920, for refusal to appear before a referee to testify to property holdings of a lumber company, of which Mr. Drew formerly was president. Mr. Drew has been free on his own recognizance.

MANY OFFENDERS CAUGHT —WILL GET ONE CHANCE

Officials from the state motor vehicle department were in Ukiah Wednesday night last and, as the crowds came from the Carnival, drivers of 78 automobiles were arrested. All of the cases were sent to Judge J. C. Hurley's court for trial—It was charged tail lights were out, lights were too bright or in some cases only one headlight was burning. Judge Hurley decided he would allow the transgressors to go this time, but, if any of those arrested Wednesday should be brought up again, fines will be imposed.

An Aged Couple Was Married Here

A romance, fascinating in its uncommonness, was revealed in Ukiah this week in the marriage of Charles F. Elliott and Mrs. A. Augusta Henry. The romance had its beginning fifty years ago near Boston where the principals in the recent wedding were sweethearts and school mates. Fate intervened and the curtain was rung down on the romance. After some years both principals, widely separated, married and in the course of time were bereft by death. Then comes the reunion of the former lovers. Mrs. Henry comes from her home in Massachusetts to make her home in Ukiah with her daughter and meets Mr. Elliot and the marriage of May 10th is the result. To add color to the romance Mrs. Henry is a direct descendent of John and Priscella Alden The marriage vows were exchanged in the parsonage of St. John's M. E. Church, the Rev. B. B. Conner officiating.

Mr. and Mrs. Elliot will leave shortly for Vermont where they will pass the twilight of their life close to the scenes of their youth. Many good wishes will go with them to their new home.

LAKE COUNTY CLUB MADE A NAME AS ENTERTAINERS

Sheriff R. R. Byrnes, Fred Handy, Bert Miller and Leslie Crawford went to Clear Lake Saturday last to attend the first anniversary outing of the Lake County Fish and Game Protective Club. The ceremonies took place at Gum Tree Point on Clear Lake and a barbecue was provided. If all of those who attended were treated as royally as were the local men, there is little question but that our neighbors went the limit in entertaining.

MACHINE WISHBONE GAVE WAY—DRIVER WAS INJURED

Lon Pool, of Lakeport, was taken to the Langland hospital Sunday following an accident on the Ukiah to Tahoe highway that resulted in painful injuries to Mr. Pool and considerable damage to the Ford car in which he was riding. The accident occurred when the wishbone of the machine broke and the car went over the grade carrying Mr. Pool with it a distance of 25 feet. The injured man is an uncle of Glen Pool of this city.

CLOVERDALE RESIDENT IS PURCHASER OF NICE RANCH

The fine ranch property north of town owned by Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Scheibel was sold this week to Mr. and Mrs. Cecil McFarland of Cloverdale who will take immediate possession. Mr. and Mrs. Scheibel and their family will move into town and occupy the property in the Wagonseller addition to Ukiah known as the old Joseph home.

DAVID FAMILY MOTORED TO SACRAMENTO SUNDAY

George David, Lee David and Mrs. James L. David, left in the family car Sunday for San Francisco to be away two weeks. The party went to San Francisco direct and from there to Sacramento to be present at the Pioneer Days carnival, later they will go to St. Helena to attend the state Odd Fellows' encampment.

HE FELL FROM A LADDER AND SUSTAINED BAD INJURY

Neil Christy was putting up a sign at the forks and while up on a ladder fell, sustaining a very badly broken leg just above the knee. The injured man was taken to Langland hospital and is now doing as well as could be expected. Dr. L. K. Van Allen is attending the patient.

MENETTI HOME BEING MADE VERY ATTRACTIVE

Beautiful landscape effect is being achieved at the A. Perelli-Menetti home by the planting of lawns and shrubbery this week. The handsome residence is a distinct asset to the city and when the spacious grounds are fully planted the abode will be one of the show places of Ukiah.

CLOSING THE MAILS

Due to the change in time of trains on the Northwestern Pacific R. R. mails out of Ukiah connecting with these trains will close at the local Postoffice as follows:

SOUTH—11:30 a. m.; 2:30 p. m. and 8 p. m.
NORTH—11:30 a. m.; 8:00 p. m.
STAGES—12 m.

Before this change of time of trains the local office dispatched mail on the early morning train leaving Ukiah at 4:45 a. m., but owing to the earlier leaving time of this train under the new schedule the mails will close the night before at the postoffice at 8 p. m. Mail for the North will close at 8 p. m.

Mrs. A. B. Crozier and little daughter, Dorothy of Eureka were visiting at the home of Mrs. Crozier's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Lanktree over the week-end.

MANY DESCENDANTS

The Mother's Day program at the Christian church as announced in last week's issue of The Press, brought a record attendance to the honor of Christ and Mother. Following the program, consisting of music and recitations, there was a roll-call of the seventeen great-grandmothers. Grandma Lambert held the honor of being the oldest mother present, and Mrs. Marvin Downing was the youngest. Mrs. F. M. Burke had the most descendents present—two children and ten grandchildren.

MUST BE REPAIRED

Active and determined steps to bring about the early repairs to the highway just north of the city limits has been launched by the Ukiah Chamber of Commerce. The complaints are so numerous regarding the disgraceful condition of this section of the highway early action is demanded. The matter has been brought to the attention of the Highway Commission at Sacramento as well as Division Engineer F. G. Somner at Willits The latter has advised the Chamber that preparations are being made to do the necessary repair work at an early date.

Huge Rattlesnake Is Killed In Canyon

One of the first rattlesnake stories of the season was told by a group of excited children Saturday afternoon upon their return from a visit to the Ukiah fish hatchery. The children were LaBelle Scott and Frances and Joan Moulton. In company with a maid they were returning from the hatchery when they encountered the snake beside the road coiled and ready to strike. The reptile, when killed, was found to have two rattles and a button. Fishermen in Reeves canyon Sunday killed a huge rattler in the vicinity of the Dr. A. E. Dickinson summer home. The rattlesnake is rarely found in the redwoods but indications are the snakes are in unusually large numbers this season.

WEARS SKIRTS SHORT AND STARTS BIG ROW

The fight that is being waged in certain parts of the east by persons of ultra-demure standards against bobbed hair and short skirts, has reached the little locality of Rincon valley in Sonoma county which is all astir over the resignation of two women trustees because Mrs. Estelle Thornbery Close, a former teacher of Mendocino county, wears her skirts short in the schoolroom. The resignations came when the remainder of the school board voted to retain Mrs. Close as principal of the school. As Mrs. Estelle Thornbery the teacher embroiled in the Sonoma county affair taught at Yorkville for several years.

HURT AT SCHOOL

Arne Talso, a student of the Ukiah high school who lives in Redwood valley was painfully injured Friday while at work in the manual training department of the school. The lad was operating the electric saw and in some unknown manner caught his left hand in the saw almost completely severing the index and middle fingers and injuring another. Young Talso was taken to the Langland hospital where the surgeons found it necessary to remove the mutilated fingers. No one was near the lad when the accident happened but it is thought that his hand slipped while he was inserting a board in the saw.

HOPLAND LOSES TO THE LOCAL HIGH SCHOOL BOYS

The Ukiah grammar school lads brought home the bacon Saturday afternoon in a spectacular game of baseball when they defeated the Hopland grammar school in a score of 30 to 11. The Hopland boys brought along a strong bunch of rooters and started off in great shape, but the local team proved too strong. Next Saturday the Ukiah lads are to cross bats with the Potter valley Union school team at the elementary school grounds.

Mrs. Gertrude Pioda of San Francisco is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Jamison.

$250.00 RAISED FOR ORPHAN BOYS

Foley & Burke Carnival Benefit Turned Out Successfully

The unanimous opinion of the Ukiah valley people is Foley & Burk Combined Shows, which appeared in Ukiah in a benefit for the Albertinum Orphanage, was the cleanest, highest-class and largest amusement attraction of its kind seen here.

Not One Complaint

There was not one instance wherein any advantage was taken of a patron, the atmosphere about the big lot was good-natured and wholesome; the equipment was new and clean, the shows entertaining and moderately priced. The various rides were carefully safeguarded to prevent accidents and gentlemanly attendants were on hand always to help women and children and see they were properly looked after.

Orphans Had Treat

On Thursday afternoon all of the boys, about 150, from the Orphanage were taken by Rev. Father Sheehan to the grounds and there they were entertained as the guests of Foley & Burk and they certainly did have the time of their lives. From some unknown source each of the boys was found to have a little spending money and with this they bought pop, candy, hot dogs and crackerjack and other sweets dear to the hearts of the kids. The boys were provided with passes for all of the attractions, but the dog and pony show won their hearts.

Monday night the rain prevented people attending and few were at the grounds. Tuesday the weather was but little better, but Wednesday the weather began to behave and from that time on good crowds attended regularly and it can be stated not one complaint was uttered about the show by anyone.

The Republican Press owner is an old friend of Foley & Burk and induced them to bring the show here and although Foley and Burk made no money bringing their aggregation to Ukiah, nevertheless when the final accounting was had the sum of $250 was turned over to The Press for the Orphans.

Highly Approved Of

Because a carnival came here last year and brought with it a lot of dishonest hangers on, who robbed people and due also to the fact the outfit's attractions were of a poor grade, Sheriff R. R. Byrnes had to be convinced Foley & Burk were all right before he would approve of their coming to the city. However, he took the word of The Press for Foley & Burk and, after the show was opened, visited the grounds almost every evening. Monday Sheriff Byrnes said: "Foley & Burk have the cleanest, best managed and squarest—shooting show I have ever attended. We did not have one bit of trouble with them and I really believe the coming of Foley & Burk, in addition to being a fine thing for the orphan boys, was a help to Ukiah. You certainly can quote me as saying Foley & Burk are all right in every way."

The promise of Foley & Burk has been given The Press they will, provided no snide carnival comes here in the meantime, come back to Ukiah next year.

FARM MATTERS ARE TOUCHED UPON

(Press Special Service)

Coyote Valley, May 15. Road improvement, spraying and sour sap were the principal subjects at the Central Farm Center meeting Friday night. There was a good attendance and every member took part in these discussions. It appears that sour sap is now the most dreaded menace to young orchards over the whole coast, and the problem of its prevention has not yet been solve. There is no treatment, as the young tree is practically dead before the trouble is discovered, there being no indications of its approach. One member told of an orchard in which over 75 per cent of the trees were killed. By resolution secretary Ford was instructed to enter upon the task of securing all possible information helpful to orchardists on the subject of sour sap, and give it out at the earliest possible date.

Still Forced To Complain

The bad condition of the state highway north of Ukiah was vigorously taken up again, and further communication with the State Highway Commission ordered. This road is in unfit condition to haul fruit and grapes over, and its prompt repair is an emergency. The urgent need is that this repair be made before deliveries of these products begin for the summer.

The Care of Trees

Spraying for tree troubles was discussed at length, and the importance of intelligent spraying emphasized. In order to spray intelligently it is necessary to know first exactly what the trouble is, then just what spray to use for that trouble, and the correct time to apply it.

Next Big Event

As to the farm bureau picnic in Potter Valley on June 3rd, it is regretted that this center cannot furnish the expected entertainment. The young fathers who were expected, each to sing his favorite lullaby song to the time of his footsteps on the bedroom floor, with baby in his arms, declare their infants are so healthy and happy they sleep all night, and so the parents have absolutely no practice worth mentioning.

Farm Advisor Myska was absent at the traveling conference, and his encouragement and instructive talks were missed.

Eager expectation is felt as to President Yate's report of the traveling conference at the June meeting.

Land Values Grow

Last week the farm known as the Mead place in northern Coyote valley was sold to an Anderson valley resident. This place was bought less than a year ago by Jacob Williams and Edson Witherall from G. E. Harrington for $6,000. The price paid in the recent sale is reported to be $8,500. Coyote valley farms are regarded as good property.

FRIENDLY SIGN TO GUIDE MOTORISTS AT MT. HOUSE

An attractive road sign directing travel north on the Redwood Highway to Ukiah from the Mountain House at the junction of the Anderson valley road has just been provided by the Ukiah Chamber of Commerce and probably will be placed this week. Numerous motorists unacquainted with the country roads have complained of finding themselves driving into Anderson Valley from the main highway instead of following the route to Ukiah. It is expected the placing of this sign at Mountain House will put an end to such complaints in future.

Would Have The Stores Keep Open

The Press has received the communication below with the request it be given publicity:

Auto Park, Ukiah, Cal., May 8, 1922.

To the People of Ukiah:

We acknowledge with thanks the wonderful hospitality of your fair city, in selecting this beautiful spot for the stranger to stop at in this wonderland of flowers and beauty.

May we suggest a possible change to make this place the most ideal spot in all our travel.

We reached here about 6 p. m. and to our astonishment found all your places of business closed.

We wanted to get away about 6 a. m. and again found we could not get any accommodation, hence we were obliged to take the money that you really were entitled to and spend it in the nearby town that did nothing to make our trip pleasant and memorable.

Would that the merchants and drug stores alternate in opening each morning and remaining open each evening so the strangers coming to enjoy your grand stopping place, could get accommodated and at the same time leave our little mite with you who have done so much for us.

Accept this in the good spirit it is offered.

From one who intends to come again and enjoy your garden spot.

From a Grateful Traveler.

Two years service or a new battery without cost -
A written guarantee without strings

Because of the merits of Luthy batteries they are guaranteed in writing,—"Two years service or a new battery without cost." And the guarantee, which means exactly what it says,—it is not an adjustment guarantee,—starts on the day when you buy your "Luthy."

Heretofore more than eighty per cent of all battery troubles have been due to short circuits. Insulating separators of wood or rubber-compounds have rotted and the plates have touched. Luthy batteries cannot short circuit in this way, for their patented separators of "Luthite" are acid-proof and indestructible in the battery.

Luthy separators are built to allow free passage of the solution and current between the plates. In other batteries the current has to pass through pores in wood or rubber-compound separators, which offer increasing resistance as the battery grows older. That is why Luthy batteries continue to charge quicker and discharge a more powerful current through the entire life of the battery. And besides they are from 10% to 20% over-capacity.

The Luthy battery is the kind you want for your car. We repair and give service on all makes of batteries.

Uncle John's Poem ~

"THE HORSE'S PRAYER"

He has nearly gone from the city but there are lots of him out among you, folks.

To the, my master, I offer this, my prayer:

Feed, water and care for me; and when the day's work is done, provide me with shelter and a clean, dry bed. Always be kind to me. Pet me sometimes that I may serve you the more gladly and learn to love you. Do not jerk the reins, and do not whip me when going up hill. Never strike, beat or kick me when I do not understand what you want; but give me a chance to understand you. Watch me and if I fail to do your bidding see if something is not wrong to prevent me from obeying.

Do not overload me or hitch me where water will drip on me. Keep me well shod. Examine my teeth when I do not eat; I may have an ulcerated tooth, and that you know is very painful. Do not tie or check my head in an unnatural position nor take away my best defense against flies and mosquitoes by cutting off my mane or tail.

I cannot tell you when I am thirsty, so give me clean, cool water often. I cannot tell you in words when I am sick; so watch me, and by signs you may know my condition. Give me all possible shelter from the hot sun; and put a blanket on me, not when I am working, but when I am standing in the cold. Never put a frosty bit in my mouth; first warm it by holding it a moment in your hands.

I try to carry you and your burdens without a murmur, and wait patiently for you long hours of the day or night. Without the power to choose my shoes or path, I sometimes fall on hard pavements, which I have often prayed might be of such a nature as to give a safe and sure footing and I must be ready at any moment to lose my life in your service.

And finally, O my master, when my useful strength is gone, do not turn me out to starve or freeze, nor sell me to some brute, to be slowly tortured and starved to death; but do thou, my master, take my life in the kindest way, and your God will reward you here and hereafter. Amen.

Please do not think me irreverent if I ask this in the name of Him who was born in a stable.

ARE TOO SERIOUS

SOME well-intending advocates of the stronger enforcement of the Volstead Act have memoralized Congress to pass a law which will make it possible to put in jail those editors who make light of the workings of the dry act. Of this effort Walt Mason very amusingly says:

My old friend Volstead looked so sad, I asked him, "Are you feeling bad?" And he replied, "It's pretty raw, the way they joke about my law; I'm weary of the ribald jeers of journalists and pamphleteers, of tinhorn lawyers in the courts, and all the cheaper grades of sports. The Volstead law is too sublime to stir up laughter all the time." "Oh, slush," I answered, "likewise pshaw! I've backed you and your well known law. I've urged the people to abjure their forty drops of spavin cure and make your law a shining light by which to guide their steps aright. But if your law can't stand the gaff and shrivels when the people laugh, it will not do for mirthful skates who dwell in these United States. Your law with me has made a hit and yet it is not Holy Writ; it is not sacred, you must own, like those famed tables made of stone. We are a jocund, jesting band, we people of this spangled land; we see the funny side of things, and we must have our little flings; and when you write a heavy tome or hand us out an epic pome, or frame a law forbidding gin, you must expect to see us grin; and if your law or pome or book our little jesting cannot brook, drag it away from joking souls and have a tinsmith patch the holes."

CAUSE OF ACCIDENT

AUTOMOBILE accidents are creating such a frightful casualty list, that their causes ought to be carefully studied, to determine what habits and practices among motorists most frequently get people into trouble.

One very common cause of collisions, is the habit of passing other cars on curves in the road. Drivers get irritated by having to drag behind some slow-moving machine on a narrow and winding highway and can't wait until they reach a clear stretch of road where they can see ahead. So they try to pass on a curve, but in so doing they get well over on the left side. If another car, hidden by the turn, happens to be coming along in the opposite direction at a high rate of speed, it becomes very difficult to avoid a smash.

The driver who delays passing until he knows the road ahead is clear, stands a much better chance of keeping out of the law courts, also out of the hospital and the cemetery.

THE OLDEST SETTLER

Old Uncle Andy Higgins has inhabited these diggins, accordin' to his statements, nearly ever since the flood. He swum the old Mizzoury to evade the petty jury, when her highest bluff was nothin' but a little dab of mud. . .

He hears us fellers grumble, when the weather takes a tumble, an' never calls a halt until she's twenty-nine below,—but soon old Uncle Andy has us feelin' fine-an-dandy, when he tells us how they froze in squads, some sixty year ago. . . .

When summer-heat is fiercest, an' coolin' breezes scarcest, old Uncle Andy chuckles with his everlastin' grin. . . . And says, in his opinion, there's a mighty warm dominion, where, chances is, the most of us will likely flounder in!

THE MODERN GIRL
(By Clem Bradshaw)

My neighbor's daughter, Geraldine, a maiden sweet and fair, takes joy-rides in her buzz machine and bobs her auburn hair. And she can ride a bucking bronc and play a game of ball; and when they hear her auto honk, folks hike for timber tall. A modern girl is Geraldine; she puts on khaki pants and climbs to some steep sylvan scene to shoot and throw and dance; she guides a boat across the bay when waves are big and rough, she goes her free and laughing way and wields a powder puff. Old fogies chant their doleful chimes about the modern girl; they sigh for olden hoopskirt times of cookery and curl. But Geraldine can also cook, and set a broken bone, and make of home a cozy nook, and bake a batch of pone. She's just as good and kind and sweet as any maid of old, she's just as modest and discreet, her heart is purest gold. When Grandma was a maiden coy, alarmists then were sad; they thought the world, with fun and joy, was going to the bad. And still they scratch their fogy beans and wail "Where are we at?" But I think modern Geraldines are fine, for all of that.

THE LIFE OF THE PARTY

Three aged Scots were in the habit of meeting on Saturday evening at the home of first one and then another of the group for social purposes. Their social demands were simple, just as their tastes were similar. All they craved was an opportunity to sit by a fire with their pipes lit and their whisky glasses handy, in silence.

One evening there had been an especially enjoyable session. Two quarts of liquor had been consumed and hardly a word had been spoken. At the approach of midnight the two guests stood up to go. One of them, with difficulty focussing his vision upon his host, who sat in the inglenook, remarked to the third member of the party in an undertone:

"What an awfu' look Sandy has on his face."

"Aye," said his crony. "He's dead."

"How long has he been dead?" inquired the first speaker in shocked tones.

"The better part of twa hours."

"Why did ye nae tell me before?"

"Hoots, mon," said his crony, "I'm nae the one to brek up a pleasant evenin'."

Forest Beauties Pictured To Club Women

Mrs. I. M. Brazier has been chosen to direct the destiny of the Saturday Afternoon Club for the coming year. Other officers who will serve with Mrs. Brazier are Mrs. G. W. Stout, first vice-president; Mrs. H. L. Preston, second vice-president; Mrs. Elmer Albertson, recording secretary; Miss Perry, corresponding secretary; Mrs. P. W. Handy, treasurer. The first above-named officers and Mrs. Lillian Thomas, Miss Joan Fraser, Mrs. Martensen and Mrs. William Cox will compose the board of council of the club according to the report of the nominating committee, including Mrs. Louis Hildreth and Mrs. J. L. Brown, made Saturday evening at the regular meeting of the club. At the close of the business session guests were admitted for the address by Paul G. Redington, district forester for California and Oregon. Mrs. R. R. Ingels, chairman of conservation, presided and introduced the speaker. Mr. Redington's talk presented authentic truths from nature that would do much toward making a better observance of law, if it could be heard by those it can never reach. On the program with Mr. Redington appeared a chorus of ten voices led by Mrs. Brazier and accompanied by Mrs. R. Thomas. They sang a group of songs. Presiding at the refreshment tables were Mrs. F. T. Barker, Mrs. Robert Austin, Mrs. Charles Kasch and Mrs. C. M. Fulkerson.

N. S. G. W. TO ENTERTAIN

The Native Sons of the Golden West will keep open house for their friends Friday evening, May 19 at which time dancing will be the principal feature of entertainment. The music will be by the Native Sons Jazz Band. The affair will be held in the ballroom of the I. O. O. F. hall.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Gowan of Capitola, who visited Ukiah relatives over the week-end left Monday for their home. Mr. Gowan was formerly associated with his brother in the Gowan Garage and was warmly greeted by many old-time friends.

Donald Thomson, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Thomson of this city, will return home this week from Berkeley where he has been attending the University of California. Harold Thomson, also a student of the University will pass the summer in Taft.

Mrs. Taylor Eddie of Potter valley was in town Tuesday enroute home after a pleasant visit in the bay cities where she was accompanied by her young son. Mrs. Eddie is a prominent member of the Potter Progress Club, the live woman's organization of that community.

Joy Beck Married At San Jose

Announcement is made this week of the marriage of Miss Joy Beck, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Beck of the Ukiah valley and Louis A. Meyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Meyer, former residents of Ukiah. The wedding was quietly solemnized at San Jose May 9. Unusual local interest attached to the event inasmuch as both young people are graduates of the Ukiah high school and have many friends here who have followed their college careers with interest. Miss Beck attended the University of California and later accepted a position with the Mercantile Trust Company of Berkeley which she held until a few weeks ago. Mr. Meyer graduated from the school of mines of the University of Nevada and holds a splendid position as mining engineer with the Nevada Consolidated Copper Company. He served overseas during the late war as a lieutenant in the 67th CoastArtillery Corps and has many admirers in Ukiah because of the sterling qualities of character that have raised him to an enviable position in the business world. Miss Beck is a sweet, unaffected young woman with a gracious charm. She is a niece of Mrs. J. I. Thomas and a cousin of Mrs. Edgar Dutton. Following a honeymoon passed in the bay cities Mr. and Mrs. Meyer will be at home at Ruth, Nevada.

LOST IN BERKELEY HILLS

Robert and McGregor Fallas, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fallas formerly of this city but who now reside at 6459 Hillegass street, Berkeley, gave their parents and friends a big scare Saturday evening when they failed to return home. An all-night search was prosecuted by scores of men and boys before the lads were found. The boys, aged 9 and 12 years, told their parents they had gone fishing Saturday morning and lost their way.

TO OUTFIT THEM

The Ukiah Chamber of Commerce has taken the initiative in a movement launched by the Home Service Section of the Red Cross to purchase baseball equipment for the ex-service men at the Mendocino State Hospital. The Board of Directors at a meeting Monday night voted a donation of $25 to this very worthy cause. Other local organizations will be given an opportunity to subscribe, it is said.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Baker were greeting friends in town Saturday. They were traveling by automobile over the route assigned to Mr. Baker by the automobile and bicycle firm of W. E. and W. H. Jackson of San Francisco. This is Mr. Baker's first trip as a salesman for the firm. His territory will include the Sacramento and San Joaquin valleys.

Mr. Dodge expects to be present at the meeting next Sunday. He and his assistants are to be complimented upon the earnest manner in which they have gone into the work of straightening out the affairs of the banks.

Committees appointed to represent the stockholders of each Bank are as follows:

First Bank of Savings—L. C. White, Miss Alice Peirsol, who will be represented by her father, Judge J. K. Peirsol, and W. F. Fuller.

First National Bank—M. D. Gray, Jr., Harry Shafsky and M. Domenogino.

CHRONICLE OFFENDED

The Advocate voiced the sentiment of the citizens generally when it said: Citizens of Fort Bragg and vicinity were surprised and provoked at an editorial in the San Francisco Chronicle of May 6 dealing with the closing of the banks, which tended to belittle the city. It said in part:

"Business is at a standstill. The sawmills have closed down. People stand about the streets as though half dazed." These statements are absurd. Business is going on as smoothly as ever. Naturally some slight inconveniences were experienced the first day or so but they have adjusted themselves.

The stories which The Chronicle printed were really gems for inaccuracy. The Chronicle sent a reporter to Fort Bragg and the reporter certainly sent in some amazing accounts.

Late Developments

The night Deputy Sheriff Ward Reis drove Cashier Weller to Ukiah, he seemed a little nervous until he got a few miles outside of Fort Bragg.

According to Deputy Reis, Mr. Weller made a statement to the effect, if the Brown matter had not come up, he would have been able to spend a lot more money.

He is also credited with a remark while enroute to Ukiah if he had wanted to get away he would have gone to Honduras.

Some are inclined to believe Mr. Weller was planning to skip out but the discovery of his shortage came unexpectedly.

He is said to have told friends that he intended to make a trip to France this summer.

Many Accounts

There are 1100 accounts in the First Bank of Savings and over 2000 depositors in the First National Bank, some having accounts in both banks. In the Savings Bank there are many children's accounts, while the largest account is said to be in the neighborhood of $17,000.

Jones Had Warning

Dr. H. M. Brown met Dr. P. C. Jones in San Francisco the Saturday forenoon the bank closed and told him that he would fix the Fort Bragg Bank good and plenty. Jones took the matter as a joke—for the time being only.

LOCAL REPRESENTATIVE ATTENDED CITY DINNER

The Ukiah Chamber of Commerce was represented at the luncheon at the Palace Hotel in San Francisco by President Austin and Secretary Brice W. Hoskins both of whom were in attendance. Practically all of the thirty-six organizations of the North of the Bay Counties Association accepted the invitation of the California Development Association to be present at this luncheon.

The speaker of the day was Judge W. F. Cutler of Eureka and the presiding official was W. L. Miller, secretary of the Eureka Chamber of Commerce.

All of the talks made touched upon the development of the counties north of the Bay, their wonderful resources and attractiveness, and the importance of the Redwood Highway as an asset to the tourist business of the State.

OFFENDING YOUNG MEN MAY RECEIVE PROBATION

Judge J. C. Hurley has filed his report as probation officer in the cases of Tommy Corkery, Stanley Fitzgerald and Walter Kelly, a trio who some months ago broke into some summer homes on the coast. Judge Hurley found the boys had borne a good reputation in the past and that they simply went up against hard luck and failure to get work and committed a crime without any real intention of so doing and in his report to Judge H. L. Preston recommended the boys be allowed to go on probation.

HIGHWAY SITUATION IS DEPLORABLE NEAR UKIAH

The deplorable condition of the State Highway for a stretch of two miles north of the city limits has been brought to the attention of Engineer F. G. Somer of the Highway Commission by the Chamber of Commerce. Mr. Somer has been urged to give this badly needed repair work his early attention. Complaints are being received almost daily from persons who are compelled to drive over that stretch of road.

BIG POWER in EVERY DROP!
"Red Crown" meets the automotive engineer's demand for a motor fuel that will vaporize rapidly and uniformly in the carburetor, and explode completely in the cylinder. Every drop is 100% power.
Fill your tank with "Red Crown" and nothing else, and you won't have to bother with carburetor adjustments. You'll get prompt starting, better mileage, and a sweeter-running motor.

HE RAN AWAY

Toby Gaillard, who has been in trouble here a number of times, twice having been accused of automobile stealing and lately charged with robbing a local meat market, ran away from the county infirmary last week. The lad was too young to be placed in the county jail and was for that reason sent to the county infirmary. The officials do not intend searching for him, as it is a foregone conclusion he will shortly offend again and land in a reformatory.
